Mr. and Mrs. Peart left the same eveing for Salt Lake, where they will spend a few days. They will be at home to their friends after November 25, at 2738 Gramercy avenue.

Mrs. Peart has been the honor guest at several affairs during the past week. Tuesday evening Miss Gladys Critchiow and Miss Thelma Farley were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Miss Critchlow on Childs avenue. During the evening Miss Dorothy O'Keefe and Miss Faye Farley entertained piano selections and Master Critchlow gave vocal selections lace Rosettes and pink rose buds were arranged at intervals around the skirt. A sliver lace panel fell full length in front. The long vell of white tilling was caught to the coiffure in front with sliver braid. Orange blossoms, the same blossoms the bride's mother wore at her wedding, were arranged across the back, catching and helding the tulle in bow-like bunches on either side. From beneath the long skirt peeped sliver slippers.

According to an old custom, the bride then ran upstairs and tarew her bouquet from her window into the midst of thirty young women Miss
